Hope to Relieve Shortage

Letters to substitute teachers of five years ago were mailed yesterday by public school officials, in hopes of enrolling them to relieve the threatened shortage in the District schools.

The problem as it now stands is not regarded as serious, but with the government positions offering untoid inducements, it is feared that many of the available "subs" may enter the care are absent and substitutes are into available, eighth grade pupils are pressed into service, and in often care classes are dismissed.

In the story, Daniel Sievens, an attorney, is the father of a beautiful girl. His life enjoys the wilder phases of life, gambling, flirting and spending.

Richard Stevens, a doctor, has a growing daughter and a careful, loving wife.

The neglectful mother allows her daughter to grow up in ignorance. The careful mother takes her daughter into her confidence.

The results can best be seen in the picture, which presents a vivid story in a masterful manner.

The cast consists of Frank Sheridan. Zena Keefe, James Morrison, Katharine Kaeired, Marie Shotwell, Arthur Donaldson, Violet Horner and Rubye De Remer.

What part women must play in the sale of liberty bonds was outlined by Mrs. Antoinette Funk, of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee, to the members of the Federation of Women's Clubs at its meeting in the Chamber of Commerce last night.

Mrs. Funk then outlined how little is known of the liberty loan in the rural districts and the real meaning of the liberty loan. The members of the federation subscribed $1,500 to the loan, and in addition to this voted to give the Red Cross committee money to buy yarn.

"IVAN ABRAMSON'S PICTURE GETS AFTER THE HUMAN WOLF IN TERRIBLE FASHION AND HANDLES HIM JUST AS HE DESERVES TO BE HANDLED."—REV. THOMAS B. GREGORY. NEW YORK EVENING SUN:

NEW YORK EVENING TELEGRAM: "Many excellent comments have been occasioned by the superior cast of players which characterizes the picture 'Enlighten Thy Daughter,' now attracting great crowds at the Park Theater."

NEW YORK TRIBUNE: "The most calloused movie fun could not fall to be impressed with 'Enlighten Thy Daughter,' which began a run at the Park Theater yesterday.
"Zean Keefe, by her neting, carries off the honors of a cast which is of the nil-star brand.
"No longer is it necessary for mothers to teach their daughters. Just send them to see this picture."

NEW YORK MORNING TELEGRAPH:

"Enlighten Thy Daughter," at the Park Thenter, is indeed well handled.
"It is one of the best of the year.
"The author has handled a delicate subject in such a manner as to affend no one.
"ENLIGHTEN THY DAUGHTER' is a well-constructed purpose play dealing with parents and children. It is not in the least salacious, but handles a very delicate subject with great adroitness. The domestic life of four families is depicted in a most interesting manner. The author is to be congratulated.
